Have you experienced sex- or gender-based assault, harassment, relationship or intimate partner violence, or stalking? Confidential resources below are available to help.

UW Confidential advocates

are available at no cost and can help with safety planning, providing resources, and understanding rights and reporting options. A crime report is not required.

For students:

Violence Prevention and Advocacy
425.352.3851
uwbvae@uw.edu

For employees:

206.685.4357
lwadvoc@uw.edu

Mental health counselors

can help with trauma recovery. No-cost options are available.

For students:

Counseling Center

UW1-080
425.352.3183
uwbcc@uw.edu

For employees:

Carelink (employee assistance) 866.598.3978
worklife@uw.edu

Medical care

is available to treat injuries, for STI and pregnancy screening, and for Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) consultation to preserve evidence. SANE exams are available at the emergency rooms listed below. No appointment needed and no cost.

Evergreen Health Medical Center

(Emergency Department)
12040 NE 128th Street
Kirkland, 98034
425.899.1000

Harborview Medical Center

(Emergency Department)
325 Ninth Avenue
Seattle, 98104-2499
206.744.3000

Additional sexual assault resources:

www.uw.edu/sexualassault

If you need immediate medical attention, call 911

Revised 9-2021
For consultation, support, or to make a report...

The resources below strive to safeguard privacy, but information may be shared on a “need to know” basis with other campus partners to evaluate and address the risk of harm to the greater community.

See reverse for confidential resources.

SafeCampus
provides free 24/7 safety planning and support by phone.
Individuals can call anonymously.
206.685.7233 or SafeCampus@uw.edu

CARE Team for student support provides consultation and coordinates services with SafeCampus.
uwb.edu/studentaffairs/care-team

Complaint and investigation offices
Reporting options are outlined on the Title IX website (uw.edu/titleix).
If the behavior is also a crime, you may report directly to the police.

Academic and employment accommodations are available for a temporary health condition and/or permanent disability such as physical injury or acute stress disorder developed as a result of trauma.

For students:
Disability Resources for Students
uwbdrs@uw.edu
425.352.5307

For employees:
Disability Services Office
dso@uw.edu or 206.543.6450

Office of the Title IX Coordinator provides assistance regarding support measures, complaints or other concerns related to sex discrimination. 206.221.7932 or titleix@uw.edu

Learn about your Title IX rights & resources:
www.uw.edu/titleix

Community resources
Contact these resources to confirm their confidentiality protocols.

Medical care
Planned Parenthood can provide medical services on a sliding scale.
(No SANE available) 1.800.230.PLAN (7256)

Counseling and crisis support

King County Sexual Assault Resource Center
24/7 Sexual Assault Resource line 1.888.99.VOICE

LifeWire—Together Against Domestic Violence
24/7 Help Line 425.746.1940

Northwest Network of Bi, Trans, Lesbian, and Gay Survivors of Abuse
206.568.7777

API/Chaya survivor support
877.922.4292

ADWAS national deaf hotline
206.812.1001