

EDUC 481: Community Capstone

Autumn 2018 • University of Washington

Instructor: Ryan Quiglar

Overview

The Education, Communities and Organizations major prepares students to work with youth and adult learners ages 8 and beyond to meet the teaching and learning needs of communities in equitable ways.

Students engage in a 3 quarter capstone internship after completing coursework in human development, learning across settings, education equity and diversity, organizational theory and community-based research and practice.

Role of Service-Learning in the Course

Students intern 10-15 hours per week for 3 consecutive quarters (fall, winter and spring or spring, summer and fall).

Students fulfill roles within schools or community-based organizations in a plethora of ways, including providing front-line services or completing priority projects.

Assignments Related to Service-Learning

No assignments other than in class reflections.
