

Recognition and Privileges Accorded Emeritus Faculty of the University of Washington

In addition to those privileges accorded all retired faculty, Emeriti of the University of Washington:

1. may apply to be principal investigators for research grants to be administered by the University;
2. may be considered to continue as chairs, or to serve on graduate student supervisory committees, as determined on a case-by-case basis;
3. are listed in the on-line UW directory;
4. may be listed in their home department's web page at the University of Washington; and
5. may be appointed by chairpersons to serve as members of University administrative committees (except clinical emeritus faculty).

UW Office of Retiree Relations
B80 Gerberding Hall
Box 351277
206-543-8600
retiremt@u.washington.edu