Odegaard is home to By George café. It's also the Washington Statue on the ground floor of Odegaard

POINTS OF INTEREST

1. Odegaard Undergraduate Library
   In addition to research and writing services, Odegaard is home to By George Café. It's also the only library on campus that's open 24 hours a day.

2. Denny Hall
   Built in 1895, Denny Hall is the oldest building on campus. Its copper-clad bellfy contains the Varsity Bell, which is rung every year at Homecoming.

3. The Liberal Arts Quadrangle (the Quad)
   The Quad is the primary gathering place on campus, especially when the Yoshino cherry trees bloom each spring.

4. Husky Union Building (HUB)
   The HUB's spaces were designed by students, for students. It's all here, including study rooms, a bike shop, bowling and restaurants.

5. Sylvan Grove and Columns
   At the south end of this shady grove stand four columns — all that remains of the UW's original campus in downtown Seattle.

6. Drumheller Fountain
   The centerpiece of Rainier Vista, Drumheller Fountain was built to highlight the spectacular view of Mount Rainier.

7. Red Square (Central Plaza)
   This large plaza connects the performing arts at Meany Hall with Odegaard and Suzzallo Libraries, Harry A. I. Gallery and lecture rooms in Kane Hall.

8. Suzzallo Library
   The central library on campus, Suzzallo is renowned for its grand staircase and expansive Reading Room, known informally as the “Harry Potter Room.”

9. University Book Store
   Located on the Ave, University Book Store is the second-largest collegiate bookstore in the country.

10. Bronze Ws
    Two of the most popular photo spots on campus are these bronze Ws. Find the statues at the south end of Rainier Vista and at the intersection of Memorial Way and NE 45th St.

11. Husky Stadium
    With views of Lake Washington and the Cascade Mountains, Husky Stadium is annually voted the most scenic football structure in the U.S.

12. UW Botanic Gardens
    Across the Montlake Bridge are the UW Botanic Gardens and Washington Park Arboretum, one of the oldest arboreums this side of the Mississippi.

13. Waterfront Activities Center
    Located behind Husky Stadium on Lake Washington, the WAC offers canoe and rowboat rentals.

14. UW Medical Center
    One of the highest-ranked medical centers in America, UW Medical Center is also home to the top-ranked UW School of Medicine.

The University of Washington is committed to providing access, equal opportunity and reasonable accommodation in its services, programs, activities, education and employment for individuals with disabilities. To request a disability accommodation, contact the Disability Services Office at least 10 days in advance of your visit.

uw.edu/maps
Learn how you can Be Boundless at uw.edu.

Above all, it’s our belief that what you care about can change the world. It’s a connection to others, both near and far. It’s a hunger that pushes us to tackle challenges and pursue progress. And it’s our conviction that together, we can create a world of good.

Learn how you can Be Boundless at uw.edu.