Workday go-live is next week

Starting Tuesday, June 27, you will begin using Workday for payroll, HR and all related employee self-service needs. Access Workday through the Integrated Service Center website.

SHARE YOUR FEEDBACK

Are you ready for Workday? Take this brief survey and tell us how we're doing in providing the information you need to prepare.

Enroll in 2FA so you're ready for Workday

Get ready for Workday by enrolling in two-factor authentication (2FA) with Duo today. 2FA protects your personal and University data, and is required for Workday.

Lead your department to champion status with the Raise the Bar Challenge

Raise the bar this summer by putting wellness to work with this 60-day program. You and your colleagues can improve your overall wellbeing by creating a workspace that supports and encourages healthy habits.

NEWS AND RESOURCES

HUMAN RESOURCES

Schedule your summer training

Space is available in a variety of July and August classes designed to enhance your personal growth and advance your on-the-job skills, including Discovering Your Dependable Strengths, Increasing Your Influence, Writing Policies and Procedures and Time Management.

IT CONNECT

Interactive dashboards show how students use, perceive technology in education

Find out the top distractions for students in class and more in interactive Tableau dashboards depicting results from undergraduate students surveyed about their educational experience with technology.

UW Libraries' Media Arcade equipped with audio-video tools

Bring your imagination to the Media Arcade, an audio-video makerspace for UW students, faculty and staff. Compose music, edit video, digitize vintage media and more.

Powerful digital audio software controller now available in Odegaard's Sound Studio

Make music, publish podcasts and produce digital audio using a new audio software controller called Ableton Push 2 recently installed in the Sound Studio in Odegaard Undergraduate Library.

THE WHOLE U

Calling all UW performers for Ovations 2017

On Oct. 29, take the stage at Meany Theater to be cheered on by your colleagues, friends and family at this year's Ovations. Show off your hidden talent at the UW's fourth annual performance showcase.

Pedro Domingos explains the power of people in shaping computing

Most computer scientists seek to empower machines. Professor at the UW Paul G. Allen School of Computer Science and Engineering Pedro Domingos would rather empower people.

COMMUNITY

2017 Awards of Excellence recognize campus, community contributions

Earlier this month, the University of Washington recognized faculty, staff, students and alumni for their achievements in teaching, mentoring, public service and staff support. Learn more about this year's awardees.

Make mindfulness a regular part of your summer

UW Recreation's Quarterly Mindfulness Pass is available for faculty and staff and gives you access to mindfulness classes throughout campus, not including IMA classes. An IMA membership is not required to purchase.

Sign up for a summer quarter fitness class or intramural sport

Make the commitment to reach your health and wellness goals. UW Recreation has a variety of fitness classes and intramurals each quarter. You must have an IMA membership to register for IMA classes and intramurals.
