NEWS AND RESOURCES

IT CONNECT

New, efficient computer storage has longer life, costs less

Compared to its predecessor, this new storage solution triples performance, more than doubles the lifespan, costs 50 percent less, and reduces electricity by 75 percent.

Explore Caribbean life and culture with Caribbean Studies in Video

In the collection brought to you by UW Libraries, browse original films, TV shows and interviews with artists, political activists, musicians and dance pioneers.

HUMAN RESOURCES

Employee-student romantic relationships and conflicts of interest

A new executive order, No. 54, applies to all UW employees and prohibits:

- engaging in a romantic relationship with a student that creates an actual or perceived conflict of interest; or
- exercising authority over a student with whom the employee has or has had a romantic relationship that creates an actual or perceived conflict of interest.

The above are prohibited unless they can be effectively managed through an acceptable plan.

Plan for career success this fall

Registration for Professional & Organizational Development fall classes opens on Aug. 21. Use these career planning tools to get ready.

THE WHOLE U

Andy Ko discusses education and innovation at the iSchool

Find out how the Informatics program chair is developing new technologies to both speed and smooth learning processes at all learning levels and in all learning contexts.

Check out the "Raise the Bar" Summer Spotlight

As our summer challenge for wellness in the workplace continues to unfold, departments across the UW get creative, working together to promote a culture of wellness.

There's still time to submit for Ovation 2017

Got talent? The Whole U invites you to show it off at our annual performance showcase on Oct. 29.

Reduce stress with this powerful eight-week course

Experience Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction (MBSR), a scientifically supported program that blends Eastern philosophy, western psychology and cutting-edge neuroscience.
