Facilities Services launches new website and customer care team

UW Facilities Services has launched a new customer-facing website as a part of the department's goal of being easy to do business with. The site accompanies the launch of Facilities Services' Customer Care Team, a new one-stop-shop covering nearly all of the department's services.

The power of personal narratives in the classroom

A UW Bothell professor shares how digital storytelling can be a powerful learning tool for both students and instructors.

Register now for the Organizational Excellence Showcase

Representatives from more than 50 UW departments will crowd into the HUB Lyceum on Tuesday, March 14 to share recent workplace improvements at the third annual Organizational Excellence Showcase. Register by Feb. 27.

Put Your Best Fork Forward 28-Day Challenge

Celebrate National Nutrition Month this March by committing to making one small nutritional change a week for four weeks.

NEWS AND RESOURCES

IT CONNECT

TechConnect Conference will focus on Transformative IT — The New Normal

Learn about innovative IT solutions at the March 23 TechConnect Conference at UW Seattle. Ignite your creativity and imagination while making professional connections across the University's IT community.

Check out Independent Voices and other digital newspapers at UW Libraries

Learn how movements for social change found their voices in the alternative press. Independent Voices is one of the e-newspaper collections brought to you by UW Libraries.

Sign up for a free workshop to learn how to use Canvas

Learn how to create your course in Canvas, the UW's learning management system. The first of two workshops is noon-2 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 27 in the Odegaard Undergraduate Library, room 102.

HUMAN RESOURCES
