You're invited: Provost Town Hall April 19

Join UW Provost and Executive Vice President Jerry Baldasty from 3:30-4:30 p.m. at Henry Art Gallery as he discusses academic priorities, addresses topics of interest to the campus community, and answers questions from the audience. No RSVP required.

University Faculty Lecture features Aquatic and Fishery Sciences' Ray Hilborn

Professor Ray Hilborn will present Sustaining Food from the Seas at the University Faculty Lecture on April 11, from 7-8 p.m. in Kane Hall 130. His talk will explore why some fisheries are prospering and examine the environmental impact of harvesting food from the seas.

New, easy-to-use eSignature service offered at no cost to UW departments through FY 2018

The new electronic signature service offers UW departments an effective way to send, sign, manage and retain documents, speeding up processing times while reducing paper use. It is offered at no cost through fiscal year 2018.

Live-stream mentoring panel on April 18

Listen to a panel of accomplished UW leaders share highlights from their career path as well as how mentors helped guide them along the way. The panel is part of the Support Professionals Spring Retreat but is open to everyone at the UW to live-stream for free.
