TWIN CITIES, MN

DEAR UW ALUMNI AND FRIENDS,

Experience the history and hospitality of the South on the American Queen as you journey from New Orleans to Memphis. Begin your voyage with an included overnight hotel stay in New Orleans. There, you can choose to stroll through the knotted oaks and Spanish moss of City Park or perhaps delight in some traditional southern cuisine in the city's legendary French Quarter. Board the American Queen and then sail to visit the Nottoway Plantation, the largest antebellum plantation in the South. Next, travel to St. Francisville, a quaint, influential town celebrated for its more than 140 buildings and plantation homes on the National Register of Historic Places. In Natchez, a quintessential southern town full of antebellum architecture, see one of the oldest European settlements in the Lower Mississippi River Valley. Then, discover Vicksburg—the “Red-Carpet City of the South”—which radiates southern hospitality and was the site of a dramatic siege during the Civil War. Before cruising the famed Mississippi to end your trip in Memphis, stop in Greenville, a historic town in the Mississippi Delta region that has been home to many famous writers and musicians.

This outstanding eight-night adventure includes fresh southern cuisine, shore excursions, and beautifully appointed accommodations. Reserve your spot by November 19, 2019 to receive the one-night pre-cruise hotel stay and the $300 early booking savings per person. Don't miss the opportunity to experience the South aboard the American Queen.

Sincerely,

Pauline Ranieri
