The resources below are private and discreet, but information may be shared on a “need to know” basis with other campus partners to evaluate and address the risk of harm to the greater community. See reverse for confidential resources.

SafeCampus
provides free 24/7 safety planning and support by phone. Individuals can call anonymously.
206.685.SAFE (7233) or safecampus@uw.edu

Complaint and investigation offices
Reporting options are outlined on the UW Title IX website (uw.edu/titleix). If the behavior is also a crime, you may report directly to the police.

Academic and employment accommodations for a temporary health condition and/or permanent disability such as physical injury or acute stress disorder developed as a result of trauma.

For students:
Disability Resources for Students
uwdrs@uw.edu
206.543.8924

For employees:
Disability Services Office
dso@uw.edu or 206.543.6450

Office of the Title IX Coordinator provides assistance if you wish to raise a complaint or have concerns regarding Title IX.
206.221.7932 or titleix@uw.edu

Learn about your Title IX rights & resources:
www.uw.edu/titleix

Community resources
Contact these resources to confirm their confidentiality protocols.

Medical care
Planned Parenthood can provide medical services on a sliding scale. 1.800.230.PLAN (7256) (No SANE available)

Counseling and crisis support

- King County Sexual Assault Resource Center
  24/7 Sexual Assault Resource Line: 1.888.99VOICE

- NW Network of Bi, Trans, Lesbian, and Gay Survivors of Abuse
  206.568.7777

- API/Chaya survivor support
  877.922.4292

- ADWAS for deaf and deafblind survivors
  206.812.1001

Revised 9-2019
Have you experienced sexual assault, sexual harassment, relationship or intimate partner violence, or stalking? Confidential resources below are available to help.

Confidential advocates are available at no cost and can help with safety planning, providing resources, and understanding rights and reporting options. A crime report is not required.

For students: LiveWell Student Advocate 206.685.4357 hwadvoc@uw.edu
For employees & students: UWPD Victim Advocate: 206.543.9337 uwpdadvocate@uw.edu

Mental health counselors are confidential, and can help with trauma recovery. No-cost options are available.

For students: Student Counseling Center 206.543.1240
Hall Health Center 206.685.1011
For employees: Carelink (employee assistance) 866.598.3978 worklife@uw.edu

Medical care to treat injuries, for STI and pregnancy screening, and for a Sexual Assault Nurse Exam (SANE) to preserve evidence. SANE exams are available at the emergency rooms listed below at no cost, with no appointment needed.

Harborview Medical Center
Emergency Department
325 Ninth Avenue
Seattle, 98104-2499

UW Medical Center
Emergency Department
1959 NE Pacific Street
Seattle, 98195

Hall Health Center
(No SANE available)
206.685.1011
www.depts.washington.edu/hhpccweb

Additional sexual assault resources:
www.uw.edu/sexualassault

If you need immediate medical attention, call 911.

Revised 9-2019