

VANESSA SHAW BIOGRAPHY

Vanessa Shaw is a highly accredited and internationally recognized Business Success Coach on a mission to transform entrepreneurial dreams into reality. Whether you are seeking more income, making a bigger impact, or enjoying greater freedom, Vanessa has helped hundreds of clients accomplish their biggest business goals and create amazing lifestyles. From generating multiple six- and seven-figure revenues to creating scenarios to work while traveling the world, Vanessa and her dedicated team of professionals working at The Business Growth Academy can help turn your entrepreneurial dreams into reality.

Our business acceleration programs deliver proven growth strategies, smart business tools and trainings, expert support, and consistent accountability. Leveraging our unique Business Acceleration Model with its 9 Growth Accelerators, the key to the success of our clients is starting with a focus on you, the business leader – your big dreams, bold vision, personal and business goals and translating those into practical plans.

Described by clients as sophisticated, engaging, articulate and astute in business, Vanessa has a genuine passion for coaching and mentoring business owners. Her personal mission is to impact over one million businesses around the world by inspiring others to be bold and play bigger in both life and business.

Originally from the UK with most of her life lived in Europe, Vanessa has more than a decade of experience working with business leaders – from startups to billion-dollar companies. Her client roster of international professional service providers includes The World Economic Forum, KPMG, Oracle, The Global Fund, the European-wide law firm Cameron McKenna, and Sandler Training, among others.

BE BOLD. PLAY BIGGER.®

She has worked for the United Nations in Geneva, Switzerland and has held senior leadership roles within the International Coach Federation.

Vanessa is real, relatable, and insightful as, she too, has built her business from the ground up, aspiring for greater success in her own life and helping others less fortunate through her charitable endeavors. She lives in Scottsdale, Arizona with her husband Robert, their two children, and a collection of four-legged friends.
