FLATICON.COM

ATTRIBUTION TO THE AUTHOR: Only on Free Version

PRICE: $89.99/YR or $9.99/mo

They have over 806,000+ icons to select from. They have a free version and also a premium membership where you get more icons and also do not have to give credit to the authors. They have a huge database of great icons that you can use in your dashboard. It is also very quick to find an icon and download it. You can also select the format, color, and size of most icons.

FINDICONS.COM

ATTRIBUTION TO THE AUTHOR: It is up to the artist.

PRICE: Free

This site seems to be completely free. I do not see any type of paid memberships for users. They do not have a lot of icons, but it seems to have enough for what I do. The licensing is dependent on the artist, so you have to read the rules for each icon.

ICONFINDER.COM

ATTRIBUTION TO THE AUTHOR: Up to artist unless you have the paid membership

PRICE PER MONTH: 50 downloads for $19/mo or Unlimited for $49/mo

Iconfinder has a few different pricing models. You can download some for free if you give credit to the other, you can buy individual icons, or you can get a monthly membership. If you get the membership, you can access all 2.3 million icons! You can also add team members for only $19 a month extra per user. They have a very robust selection.

ICONMONSTR.COM

Attribution To The Author: Just agree to terms

Price: Free

Another free icon resource is iconmonstr, they do not have as much as the others, but they still have some good choices. You just need to search what you are looking for, accept the terms and download. Very easy and fast.

FREEPIK.COM

ATTRIBUTION TO THE AUTHOR: Only on Free Version

PRICE: $9.90/mo or $89.99/yr

Freepik also has a huge selection. They offer high-quality graphic designs for both personal and commercial projects. You can download icons here for free if you give credit to the author. In this website, you can get over 531,500+ icons plus 220,000+ stock photos for free, if you upgrade to premium you will no longer have to link to the author and get over 783,500+ more resources. I had their monthly membership before; I think its a great value.
