

PROGRAM LEADER

JOB DESCRIPTION

Walking Tree Travel

The Company

---

Walking Tree Travel is a travel company that specializes in providing international adventures for middle and high school students. Our mission is to inspire young people to become global citizens by taking an active interest in the world around them. Programs focus on cultural and language immersion, community service, leadership training, environmental conservation, and adventure travel. Visit our website at walkingtree.org to learn more.

The Job

---

Walking Tree leaders are all unique, well-traveled, dynamic individuals. We aim to share our enthusiasm for the world with students on adventurous and safety-conscious programs in 20 countries across the globe. Leaders help cultivate cultural awareness for participants, communicate with the program director, organize daily activities, and facilitate the safest, most memorable experience possible. It's like being a camp counselor, but so much more! The programs last between ten days and two weeks. Educators, recent college graduates and graduate students tend to be great matches for this position. Program Leaders will attend a virtual training to prepare them for the job.

The Candidate

---

The ideal candidate boasts the following qualifications:

- Four-year degree from college or university
- Fluent in English as well as host country's local language(s)
- Experience working and traveling with students
- Extensive travel experience (preferably in destination's region)
- Passion to inspire young people

Compensation: Daily Rate

---

Program leaders make $100 a day, and all expenses and round-trip flight to destination are included. Daily rate begins on the day the group arrives to the host country and ends on the day the group departs host country.

Certifications

---

All program leaders need to be CPR and First Aid Certified. If you're not already certified, you can complete an online certification program or in person at a regional Red Cross location. Walking Tree offers reimbursement.
