ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine in addition to the money judgment of forfeiture.

The Court has entered a money judgment of forfeiture against the defendant, which is hereby incorporated by reference into this judgment and is final.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Mitchell G. Cohen, is hereby placed on Probation on the Single-Count Information for a term of one year on the following terms and conditions:

Further, the defendant shall show proof to the Probation Officer of compliance with this order.
6. The defendant shall notify the Medical Board of California and the New York Medical Board of the defendant's conviction within 30 days of this judgment and thereafter comply with any orders, including any employment or business restrictions. Such notification shall include the entire factual basis of the plea agreement, including that relating to the kickback scheme. Further, the defendant shall show proof to the Probation Officer of compliance with this order.
7. The defendant shall reside for a period of ten months in a residential reentry center community corrections component, as directed by the Probation Officer, and shall observe the rules of that facility. The Court recommends a County of Orange location.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed.
