

Paul in Athens

I. All people are in a relationship with God, whether they acknowledge it or not: either as covenant breakers in Adam or covenant keepers in Christ.

II. All covenant breakers willfully suppress the knowledge of the truth.

III. The resurrection of Jesus confirms that God will execute the covenant curses on those in Adam, but the covenant blessings on those in Christ.

For Reflection/Application:

What makes it hard for you to act as a Gospel messenger?

How does this message speak to you today, and how can you take action to let the Gospel overcome you're the things that keep you from being on mission with Christ?
