

Sin, Grace, and the Mystery of God

Exodus 32-34

- I. God's promise is not ultimately salvation – it is relationship with Him.

- II. God's goodness consists not merely in his mercy, but in His freedom to give that mercy to whomever He chooses.

- III. The cross demonstrates how God can be both completely righteous and completely merciful.

- IV. God's mercy brings us back into intimate relationship with Him.
