Waterstone Mortgage Names Nathan Vlazny as Vice President – Underwriting

Pewaukee, Wisc. (April 26, 2018) – National mortgage lender Waterstone Mortgage Corporation is pleased to welcome Nathan Vlazny as Vice President – Underwriting at the Pewaukee-based corporate office.

Vlazny was previously the Underwriting Manager for the South Atlantic Region of Academy Mortgage. He has more than 15 years of experience in underwriting; 10 of those being in underwriting and operations leadership roles.

“We are excited to welcome Nathan to the Waterstone Mortgage leadership team,” said Waterstone Mortgage Chief Operating Officer Kerry Wirth. “His professional experience aligns perfectly with the opportunities he will be undertaking here, and his dedication to creating a loan process that fosters strong connections between our Waterstone Mortgage team members, homebuyers, and Realtor partners is second to none.”

In his role, Vlazny will be responsible for the management of all underwriting functions, developing process improvements, preparing for industry-related changes, and continuing to build positive, collaborative partnerships between Waterstone Mortgage branch and corporate operations team members.

“In my new role, I look forward to partnering with a team that actively helps homebuyers pair the right home with the right loan program,” said Vlazny. “Waterstone Mortgage is always looking for ways to make the loan experience better for not just the homebuyers and Realtors, but for everyone involved in the mortgage transaction – and I’m excited to be part of that process.”
