

Perspective and Attitude

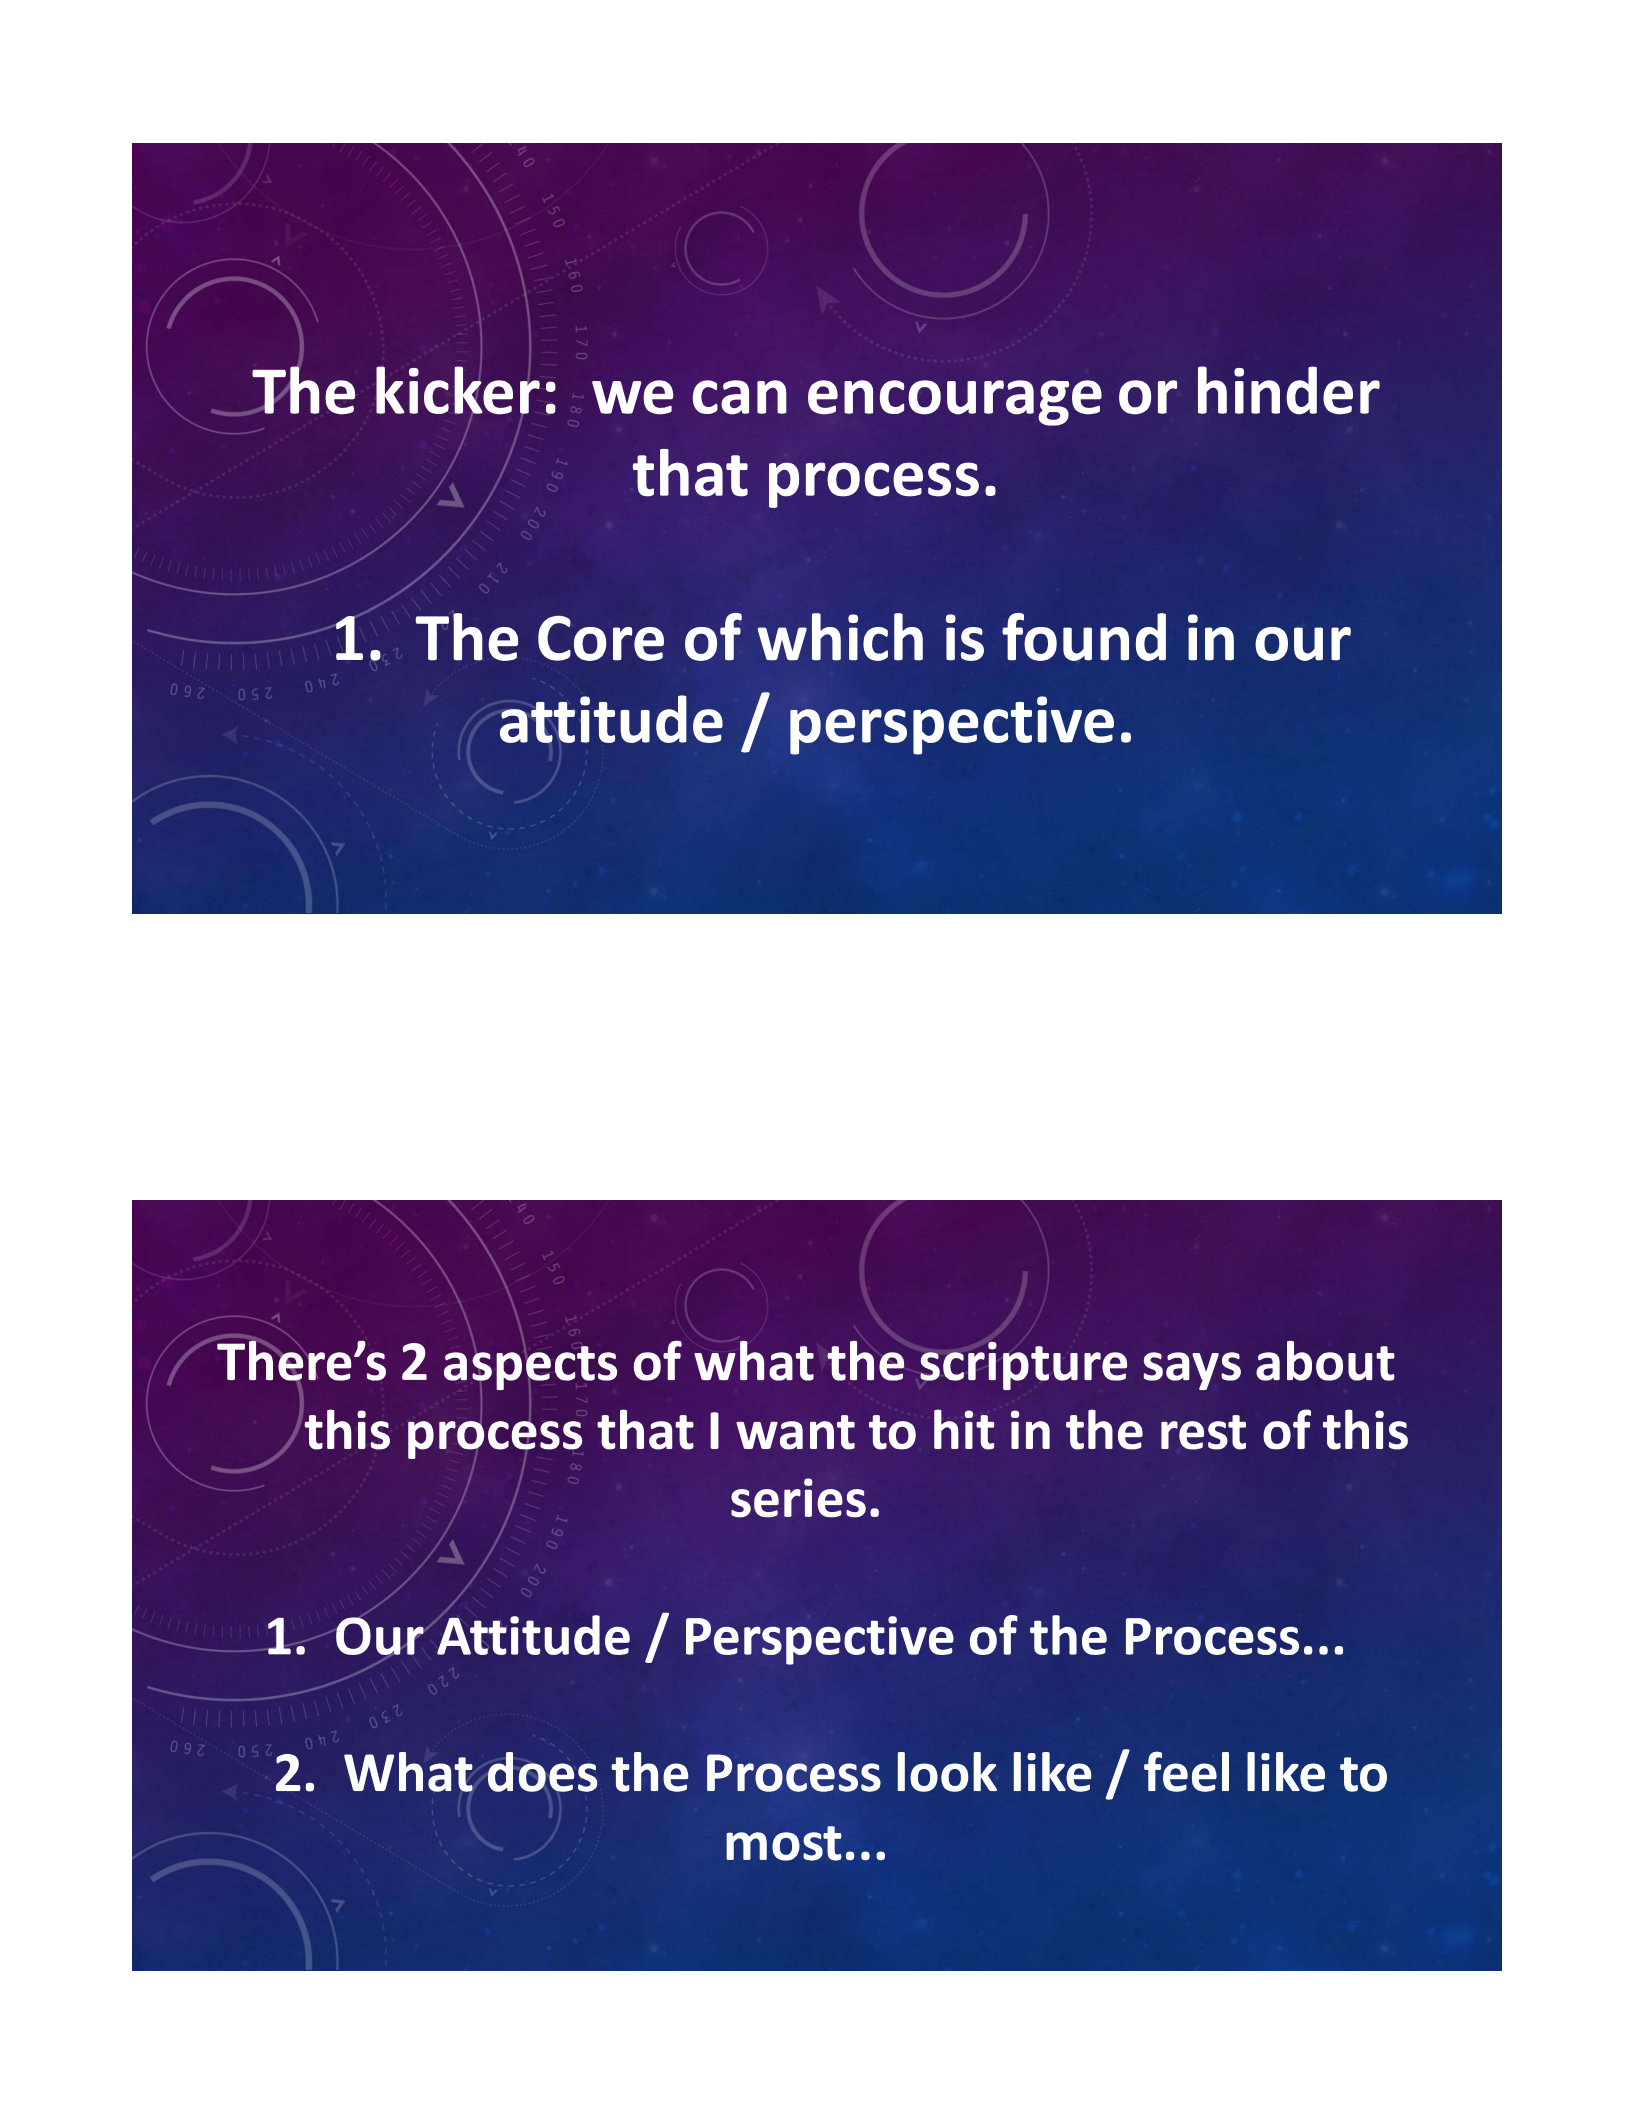

To change a persons life, we need to simply change what they believe.

- That will change how they measure or look at life.
- Which changes what their life produces.

To change our situation

- we will need to change what we believe about it
- what we believe is determining how we are measuring it.
- our measurement is producing the results.

The main point of this series is to challenge our Attitudes / Perspectives.

The kicker: we can encourage or hinder that process.

1. The Core of which is found in our attitude / perspective.

There's 2 aspects of what the scripture says about this process that I want to hit in the rest of this series.

1. Our Attitude / Perspective of the Process...

2. What does the Process look like / feel like to most...

#1 - We need to be willing to enter:

- > uncomfortable
- > difficult
- > painful

- areas of our life.

#2 - We must be willing to CHANGE:

- > What we Believe / Faith
- > Which will change how we Measure Life
- > Which will change how we Live
- > Which will change what is being Produced in our Lives.

Mark 4:15 (AMP)

[15] The ones along the path are those who have the Word sown [in their hearts], but when they hear, Satan comes at once and [by force] takes away the message which is sown in them.

Luke 8:12 (AMP)

[12] Those along the traveled road are the people who have heard; then the devil comes and carries away the message out of their hearts, that they may not believe (acknowledge Me as their Savior and devote themselves to Me) and be saved [here and hereafter].

Mark 4:16-17 (AMP)

[16] And in the same way the ones sown upon stony ground are those who, when they hear the Word, at once receive and accept and welcome it with joy;

[17] And they have no real root in themselves, and so they endure for a little while; then when trouble or persecution arises on account of the Word, they immediately are offended (become displeased, indignant, resentful) and they stumble and fall away.

Matthew 13:21 (AMP)

[21] Yet it has no real root in him, but is temporary (inconstant, lasts but a little while); and when affliction or trouble or persecution comes on account of the Word, at once he is caused to stumble [he is repelled and begins to distrust and desert Him Whom he ought to trust and obey] and he falls away.

Luke 8:13 (AMP)

[13] And those upon the rock [are the people] who, when they hear [the Word], receive and welcome it with joy; but these have no root. They believe for a while, and in time of trial and temptation fall away (withdraw and stand aloof).

Mark 4:18-19 (AMP)

[18] And the ones sown among the thorns are others who hear the Word;

[19] Then the cares and anxieties of the world and distractions of the age, and the pleasure and delight and false glamour and deceitfulness of riches, and the craving and passionate desire for other things creep in and choke and suffocate the Word, and it becomes fruitless.

Matthew 13:22 (AMP)

[22] As for what was sown among thorns, this is he who hears the Word, but the cares of the world and the pleasure and delight and glamour and deceitfulness of riches choke and suffocate the Word, and it yields no fruit.

Luke 8:14 (AMP)

[14] And as for what fell among the thorns, these are [the people] who hear, but as they go on their way they are choked and suffocated with the anxieties and cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not ripen (come to maturity and perfection).

Mark 4:20 (AMP)

[20] And those sown on the good (well-adapted) soil are the ones who hear the Word and receive and accept and welcome it and bear fruit — some thirty times as much as was sown, some sixty times as much, and some [even] a hundred times as much.

Luke 8:15 (AMP)

[15] But as for that [seed] in the good soil, these are [the people] who, hearing the Word, hold it fast in a just (noble, virtuous) and worthy heart, and steadily bring forth fruit with patience.
