Claiming Your Mission

What does it really mean to claim your mission? Are you worried that you're not ready yet, that you don't have enough information?

All that you need is truly inside you. You were born with a unique, divine purpose and those seeds are within you. You have an inner voice that speaks to you, that has always been speaking to you. Are you listening to this voice, are you ignoring it, or somewhere in between?

When you tune into your beingness, your divine purpose, your mission starts to become more clear and the next actions become evident.

As a reminder, your purpose has to do with your beingness and your Divine Mission is about what you do when you are tuned into your Divine Purpose, your divine beingness.

Spirit sent you here to be a certain person and to do a certain job. When you are doing that job, life is up underneath you, supporting you, sending you the resources you need to make it happen.

Deep Questions to Help You Tune In

If still you're having difficulty tuning into your Divine Purpose and Divine Mission, ask yourself these questions¹:

What energy, space, and consciousness can my body and I be that would allow more information to come to me about my divine purpose and mission?

If I choose this, what will my life be like in five years? If I don't choose this, what will my life be like in five years?

If I create this, what will the world be like in 50 years, in 100 years, in 500 years?

How much will this creation affect the future?

When you create something amazing, you want to ask: What would it take for more of that to show up?

Mmmmm ... delicious! So, you are you beginning to tune into how much more information there actually is inside you and your body awareness than you may have imagined. Follow your guidance system.

All I'm doing inside this teaching is to guide you back to yourself.

Homeplay:

When you tuned in more deeply and asked these questions, what did you realize that you need to do next? Was it one thing? Was it a series of things? Write them down.

Next, plan time in your calendar to take those actions.

Are you ready to take the action that you were guided to take? Or, are you afraid to take those actions? Are your mind and your fear taking you out? Tune into the fear bonus to see if it helps. Or, show up on the group coaching call for support.

This is the end of the main part of this bonus. I'd also like to remind you of some of the Module 1 materials that may also be helpful here.

Reminders of a few Module 1 Materials

3. BE RECEPTIVE & live with a consciousness of possibility.
4. BE COURAGEOUS & willing to take risks.
5. BE OUTSTANDING at all that you do.
6. BE GENEROUS & GENERATIVE in all your relationships.

Quantum Leap Quote Reminders²

QUANTUM LEAPS never happen by doing the same thing you're doing now. Price Pritchett says, "Be ruthless about trying something different. Conventional growth comes because we think along conventional lines."

² These quotes are taken from a post written by Tom Suddess on May 5, 2009 taken from this web site:
http://www.forimpact.org/2009/05/take_a_quantum_leap.php

QUANTUM LEAP means violating the BOUNDARY of the “PROBLEM.” This means giving yourself permission to dream and to risk.

QUANTUM LEAPS come when you seek the elegant solutions. Look for an approach characterized by SIMPLICITY, PRECISION, and NEATNESS. (NOT as COMPLEX or TIME-CONSUMING as your PRESENT STRUGGLE).

“GETTING READY” (research, fancy brochures, etc.) is a stalling tactic, an act of anxiety.

Finally:

You don't “prepare” for a QUANTUM LEAP ... you MAKE IT, and then you frame out the DETAILS and STRATEGY on the way!
